Phâro Marine Sugaring Gel

Phâro Marine Sugaring Gel is one of the latest additions to the Pharo product range. The Marine gel contains Paua also known as Abalone, which is found in the clear waters of the South Pacific Ocean that surrounds New Zealand. It is a species of Abalone which is unique to New Zealand, and is valued for its therapeutic qualities. The Paua extract in Phâro Marine Sugaring Gel is processed from freshly harvested Paua and is extremely rich in marine protein, vitamins, minerals and trace elements. These ingredients are blended with Bladderwrack, a kelp seaweed extract which is a nourishing tonic for the skin. Phâro Marine Sugaring Gel will nourish, moisturise and invigorate the skin. The fragrance brings the freshness of the sea right into your salon and will refresh your client's senses.

Ingredients: Sugar, Water, Citric Acid, Paua (Abalone), Bladderwrack (Kelp), Mica, Lemon Juice, Potassium Sorbate and Marine fragrance

Phâro Marine Sugaring Gel has the following properties:

- Anti-inflammation
- Anti-redness
- Anti-pruritus

Phâro Marine Sugaring Gel is available in warm gel pots, firm gel pots and warm gel cartridges.
